DISCRETIONARY USE APPLICATION FORM

The zoning bylaws enforced within the RM of Vanscoy No. 345 provides for discretionary land use and development which are deemed by Council to have one or more features or potential effects that warrant a proposal-specific review and which specifically require approval by a resolution of Council prior to initiating any activity or building construction.

An applicant proposing a discretionary form of development as defined within the Zoning Bylaw shall be subject to the following fees as prescribed by the Planning Fee Bylaw:

Basic Application $400.00

Application Requirements

The following application requirements apply:

- a) a completed discretionary use application form (attached) The owner of the property must also sign the application form or provide a letter of consent for the application to be proposed. ;
- b) a completed development permit application form, if applicable;
- c) submission of any application appendices if necessary;
- d) receipt of full payment of the applicable application fees for the discretionary use and development permit applications, which can be paid by cash or cheque in the office as well as by e-transfer to our main email address at payments@rmvanscoy.ca. ;
- e) a scaled site plan drawing showing, in detail, the site of the proposed discretionary use and including site following at a minimum;
 - north arrow;
 - boundaries of parcel including approximate dimensions;
 - location and dimensions of existing buildings and structures;
 - location of proposed discretionary activity on the property including proposed buildings and structures and distances from the four property boundaries;
 - location of all existing and proposed utilities;
 - location of all existing and proposed approaches, driveways, parking and outdoor storage areas; and
 - location of all distinguishing physical features located on or adjacent to the property including but not limited to sloughs, streams, drainage ways including culverts, wetlands, slopes bluffs etc.
- f) a letter describing the following aspects of the proposed activity:
 - an estimation of traffic volumes generated to the property as a result of the proposed use;
 - lighting and signage requirements including identifying their location on the site plan;

- operational details including projected number of employees, seasons, days and hours of operation;
- identification of safeguards that may be required to minimize nuisances to adjacent properties including noise, dust and odours;
- identification of the source and assessment of the capacity of the available water supply to accommodate the proposed use;
- method of disposal of solid or liquid waste generated from the use; and
- any additional information concerning the use that describes the nature and intensity of use proposed.

Public Notification

Once the Development Officer has deemed the information provided as complete, a copy of the applicant's letter will be provided to all landowners within a 75 metre radius of the subject property and to any other landowners the Development Officer identifies as possibly being affected by the development or who may have an interest in the lands.

All of the above contacts will be provided with a minimum of 2 weeks notice prior to the meeting. Any comments received will be included in the report provided to Council.

Decision Time Frame

The timing associated with the notification, review and approval process will depend solely on the completeness and quality of information provided. Generally, once the required time for receiving responses to the written notification has elapsed, a report is generated and presented to Council on behalf of the applicant by the regularly scheduled Council Meeting at which time a decision is made. Under normal conditions, this process could take a minimum of 8 weeks to receive approval.

Appeals

Council may approve the application, reject the application, or approve the application with conditions, including a condition limiting the length of time that the use may be conducted on the site in order to secure the objectives of the Zoning Bylaw.

The Planning and Development Act, 2007 limits the ability for an applicant to only appeal any conditions of approval applied by Council. There is no ability to appeal Council's refusal of a discretionary use application.

A notice of appeal must be provided to the Development Appeals Board Secretary along with the required fee no later than 30 days from receiving a copy of the written decision from Council.
